All Catholic families who receive in-parish tuition rates must be active and supporting member of St. Joseph Parish. New families to the school need to be registered and have supported the parish for a period of at least six months prior to school opening in order to qualify for the in-parish rates. In the case of families moving into the parish, it will be necessary to have the "Parish Family Agreement" form completed by the previous parish to establish active and supportive membership to be granted in-parish tuition rate.
